

In parallel with the philosophies of its founding partners, Mr. Rudhy A. Lontoh and Mr. Edward N. Lontoh, Lontoh & Partners focuses on a continuity of criminal, civil litigation and legal consulting services. As a reputable envoy of law, the firm maintains long-standing relationships with foreign and domestic clients ranging from and in the fields of banking and finance, mining, property, media, the petrochemical industry, forestry, insurance and the capital market sectors, as well as with selected numbers of distinguished individuals.

The strong leadership of its founders is bolstered by the firm and dedicated commitment of its qualified attorneys as the building blocks of the firm's building blocks. As a solid coordinated team, we have established Lontoh & Partners as one of the most reputable law firms in Indonesia for Litigation, Commercial and Corporate and Insolvency and Restructuring practices. Our Litigation practice has been regarded from success in numerous high profile commercial litigation cases as well as high profile criminal matters. Our Commercial and Corporate practice is known for its involvement in numerous complex transactions and capital market related works. Our Insolvency and Restructuring practice enables us to provide our clients with a complete suite of non-contentious and contentious legal services.

Most of our attorneys are also certified to provide legal advice within the Indonesian capital market sectors as registered capital market lawyer (as required under the prevailing Indonesian laws).

Lontoh & Partners has a documented series of outstanding accomplishments representing a diverse range of multinational and national clients in business-centric cases, encompassing debt restructuring, corporate restructuring, merger and acquisitions, incorporation, foreign direct investment company and initial public offerings.
