

DISCUSSION "Cross-Border Shareholder Disputes: Making Up or Breaking Up"

31 October 2016 - To advance our commitment toward enhancement of legal awareness in Indonesia, Kantor Hukum Lontoh & Partners participated in discussion "Cross-Border Shareholder Disputes: Making Up or Breaking Up". Held by Indonesia Corporate Counsel Association (ICCA) in October 31, 2016, this event discussed the options and processes in shareholder disputes resolutions. The speakers of this discussion have extensive experience and a solid track record acting for both foreign and Indonesia joint venture parties. They are: Edward N. Lontoh (Partner of Lontoh & Partners Law Firm, Vice-chairman of the Indonesian Bar Association in charge of Government and Inter-Organisations Relations and Chairman of the Basic Education Department of the Capital Market Legal Consultant Association (HKHPM)), Tandip Singh (Head of Corporate Practice of RPC Premier Law), and Siraj Omar (Head of Dispute Practice of RPC Premier Law).

Further details about this event on hukumonline.com:

<http://www.hukumonline.com/berita/baca/lt58359be2df0db/ini-kiat-menyelesaikan-sengketa-antar-pemegang-saham-sebelum-memilih-pengadilan>