

Practices

1. Litigation, Arbitration & Dispute Resolution Lontoh & Partners's Litigation, Arbitration & Dispute Resolution Practice Group provides comprehensive and effective strategies for dispute management and resolution.

The Lontoh & Partner's litigation & arbitration team has distinguished itself in high profile and complex cases and secured important decisions breaking new legal ground.

Lontoh & Partners works closely with our clients to manage their domestic and international disputes, assisting them to devise effective, practical and commercially driven solutions. We use the best strategies available, and our expertise in litigation, domestic and international arbitration, mediation and other alternative dispute resolution methods, to achieve a successful resolution for our clients.

The services offered by our Litigation & Arbitration Practice Group include:

- Arbitration
- Banking & Finance Litigation
- Commercial Litigation
- Construction
- Corporate & Investment Disputes Litigation
- Employment Litigation (Labor Law)
- General Litigation
- Insurance Litigation
- Intellectual Property Litigation
- Real Estate Litigation

2. Insolvency & Restructuring The lawyers in our Restructuring and Insolvency Practice Group have built up significant experience in the area of debt and corporate restructuring and insolvency, both corporate and personal. Their experience is in both contentious and non-contentious matters, and the Insolvency and Restructuring practice comprises lawyers from our Corporate, Capital Markets and Litigation, Arbitration and Dispute Resolution practice groups.

Having substantial experience advising and representing various local and international banks and financial institutions, our lawyers are familiar with the regulatory and compliance frameworks within which banks and financial institutions operate, loan and security documentation, various financial instruments, documentary credits, bank guarantees, performance bonds, and credit structures. Our lawyers have been involved in numerous litigation and arbitration claims involving banking-related claims.

The experience garnered from involvement in banking transactions, and banking-related disputes places our lawyers in an excellent position in restructuring and insolvency work.

Our lawyers are well-equipped to provide clients with preventive or pre-emptive advice on structuring transactions so as to maximize the recovery of their investments or to best protect their interests in the event of insolvency of their joint-venture partners or borrowers.

Our lawyers have been involved in numerous receiverships, liquidations, judicial managements, schemes of arrangements, cross-border insolvencies, personal bankruptcies and voluntary arrangements. Our lawyers have represented and advised both creditors and debtors, and have advised on the recoverability of loans, the enforcement of securities and judgments, the rights of secured and unsecured creditors, bondholders' rights, priority of payouts to creditors, schemes of arrangement, settlements and compromises.

Our lawyers have also assisted and been actively involved in the uncovering of corporate fraud, misconduct and misfeasance of various officers of insolvent companies. They have assisted in the recovery or "claw-back" of fraudulent transactions, undervalued transactions, or unfairly preferential transactions through examination of former officers and employees of insolvent companies and asset tracing.

3. Corporate Lontoh & Partners's Corporate Practice Group provides the full range of legal services to corporate clients across a wide spectrum of industries.

Our advice is based on extensive experience, combining legal expertise and commercial sensibilities with a thorough understanding of our clients' businesses. We work closely with our clients to structure, organize and implement their business ventures and investments, adding value and supporting all their legal needs.

We are particularly experienced in advising clients who are seeking to establish or expand their presence in Indonesia. We assist companies in corporate compliance and governance issues, and legal and regulatory requirements.

Our clients include multinational corporations, banks, securities firms, funds and asset management companies, international trustee corporations, private equity investors, venture capital funds, SMEs and start-ups.

The services offered by our Corporate Practice Group include:

- Banking
- Asset acquisitions - domestic and cross border
- Asset management

- Corporate finance
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Takeovers
- Company incorporations and registration of foreign branches
- Foreign Direct Investment
- Company administration
- Corporate compliance and governance
- Employment law
- Joint ventures and strategic alliances - international and domestic
- Licensing, agencies, and distribution
- Franchising
- Corporate restructurings and amalgamations
- Registrations of business and representative offices

4. Capital Markets & Securities Lontoh & Partners Capital Market & Securities Practice Group advises issuers, underwriters and investors in stock, bond, convertible bond and commercial paper transactions, and prepares for and assists clients with IPOs and secondary or subsequent offerings.

Where public offerings prove less than desirable or appropriate, Lontoh & Partners assists companies in the formulation and completion of strategic financing alternatives.

5. Intellectual Property (IP) Services offered by Lontoh & Partners's IP Practice Group include:

- Trade Marks
- Copyright
- Litigation & ADR
- Investigations
- Patents
- Designs
- Commercialization
- Enforcement
- Strategy and Management